1. Handouts are divided into specific categories (content areas: reading, math, social

2. There are curriculum ideas collected for various content areas with specific categories.

3. Conferences/ideas/samples of bulletin boards.

4. Examples of projects students can make or have been made in the classroom or methods classes.

5. Examples/directions for teaching ideas observed or collected.

6. Any materials/resources you feel would be helpful in the future. (Address for web site, list of books, resources, etc.)

7. The file is organized in a manner where materials can easily be retrieved and used for future lessons.

Directions: Materials in the resource file should be organized by subject and content area. You may include any materials you want to include with your classroom.

GRADE: P F T-Grade

NAME ____________________________

Resource File

DATE ____________________________

SIGNATURE ____________________________